Art. 1: Purpose

This policy outlines the basis on which American University of Malta awards scholarships. It defines the types of scholarships and provides criteria, which must be implemented for a student to receive a scholarship. It sets out scholarship commitment, which shows responsible office for scholarship application process.

Art. 2: Scope

This policy is applicable to all applicants and current students of the American University of Malta.

Art. 3: Scholarship Committee (SC):

This policy is conducted by Scholarship Committee, formed by the CEO and the Director of Finance and Administration.

Art. 4: Scholarship Commitment

For prospective students, the admission department; and for current students, the student affairs departments are responsible of reviewing and ensuring that all necessary information is provided in student application for scholarships form. After the confirmation that data is correct, the applications are forwarded to SC for final approval. After SC's approval, scholarship can be awarded to student.

Art. 5: Types of scholarships and their requirements:

Each year, the board of trustees announces a merit scholarship, awarded to all students accepted to AUM. The merit scholarship for the academic year 2020-2021 is 14.500 Euros for NON-EU students, 16.500 Euros for EU students and 17.500 Euros for Maltese students. Following scholarships will additionally be calculated after the application of this merit scholarship to the original tuition fees.

Art. 6: Scholarships for prospective students

The scholarship types covered below will be valid until the student's graduation from the program he/she is enrolled to. The duration of the scholarship may not pass more than a year of the regular time of graduation of that specific program.

1. Academic excellence scholarship.
